

Tabitha Barnes Bio

Tabitha Barnes is a native of Thomasville, Georgia. She is the 3rd person in Thomasville High School's history to receive the Naismith award in girls' basketball. She has been awarded many more athletic awards for outstanding athleticism. She has coached both middle school and high school girls' basketball.

Tabitha went on to earn her certifications in Christian Counseling and Christian Life coach from Liberty University, in Lynchburg, VA. Tabitha has been an ordained minister for 13 years where she has spoken at many women's conferences. She is also the host and producer of her own Christian television talk show, Tabitha's today broadcasted all over the world.