The deposit amount of $750.00 is due prior to Omega Sports Academy International accepting any applicant for housing. The deposit secures a player's place in housing and is non-refundable unless the player stays in academy for the entire season, session or academic semester based on your enrollment. Player must be in good standing with all required tuition payments, fees and deposits as stated on your enrollment, leaves housing in good condition, has returned all issued equipment & gear and has a $0 balance. Players must pay a minimum of 50% of the total cost of attendance as stated in your payment enrollment agreement to be allowed into housing. Failure to properly check out and/or return keys will result in forfeiture of deposit. All housing is on a first come first serve basis and availability is subject to change based on player demand for specific housing options as well as proximity to the session/semester and payment of the housing deposit.

Residents must have health insurance benefits to reside in Omega Sports Academy International sponsored housing.
